- Implementing the individual and group programmes for the service users in all aspects of development
- Completing assessments and reviews.
- Setting conductive goals for participants ensuring that they reach their full potential.
- Creating and maintaining an appropriate learning environment for all service users in the designated area.
- Organising relevant events for the Conductive Education service.
- Sharing expertise, case discussions with the team.
- Effective communication with participants/families/carers, including meetings at the centre through the key worker system

We offer:

- Excellent development opportunities supported by professional staff.
- Opportunity to join a young team of conductors with differing levels of expertise and experience
- A purpose built facility for delivering Conductive Education.
- Wide range of resources, educational tools and equipment to help with service delivery
- Potential to take part and actively form the development and growth of the services offered by The Rainbow Centre.

If you feel that your experience, skillset and attitude are right for this role, then please apply.

For application form and job description please contact the Centre at enquiries@rainbowcentre.org

The Rainbow Centre is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of service users/children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We are dedicated to ensuring that consistent, effective safeguarding procedures are in place to support all families, service users/children and staff at The Rainbow Centre. All concerns are passed through the necessary members of staff, on a 'need to know' basis, in compliance with the "sharing of information" guidance.

DBS check to be carried out by the centre for the successful candidate.
